There is no need for the Comptroller issuing such enactments which are merely an academical nature. They were on duty in the sense that they were bound to attend to work. They were guests in the sense that they messed & lodged altogether. Mr Chakravarti knows this quite well.

SERIAL No. 128.

SIR,

I have the honour to state that Mr. Matthan, Under-Secretary on duty with the Dewan, and Mr. Govinda Rao, Private Secretary to the Dewan, have claimed in their travelling allowance bills for journeys in connection with the Coronation Durbar at Delhi, usual travelling allowances for journeys to and fro but no daily allowance for the halt at Delhi from the 1st to 17th December 1911 during which period they are stated, as noted in their bills, to have been treated as State guests invited to Delhi. I beg to invite attention in this connection to G.O.Fl.1833-42-S&A 275-11-1 dated 1st November 1911 directing that these officers, among others, should be considered to be travelling on duty and that their travelling allowances should be regulated by the provisions of the Mysore Service Regulations or the Civil Service Regulations, as the case may be. This order is understood to mean that the officers' claims to travelling allowance should be wholly regulated by the ordinary rules: these two officers, however, put a different construction on the order, while for the from and to journeys they claim allowances at the ordinary rates, for the halt at at Delhi they claim treatment as guests . The order referred to does not authorise the treatment of the officers concerned as guests for a part of the period and as on duty for the rest of the period. If these officers are to be treated as guests, the order to be applied to their case is that dated ~~1st November~~ 12th Oct. 1911 Hay 9 and this does not authorise the payment of the ordinary rates of travelling allowance for the from and to journeys. In these circumstances, I request to be informed if the two officers may be regarded as guests during the period of their halt at Delhi and as on duty during the rest of the period.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient Servant,

Offg. Comptroller.
